LAWRENCE UTIN'S TIME AT ST GEORGE:

St George definitely gave me all the basics I needed to deal with further education. From St George I have taken my life long friends away with me. Since leaving with my qualifications from St George, I've been the Head Pastry Chef at a company called Quality Finish Patisserie for the past 12 years. I found the position through an apprenticeship and learnt a lot on the job! I now take part in many courses, host events and presentations with carious companies, pubs and hotels. I am in charge of a solid kitchen brigade of 12 chefs, 8 drivers and 4 kitchen porters.
