

Reading Challenge Bingo

Your challenge is to complete as many of the tasks below. You must evidence that you have completed each challenge using one of the strategies in the second bingo box. E.G. You might read a book that has been made into a film and evidence it by re-writing the ending however you want. Once you have completed a line, see Miss Barron who will give you a HP and enter you in the Literacy Prize Draw at the end of each term. If you complete the whole bingo board, you will receive an even bigger prize! GOOD LUCK...

| | | | | |
|--|-----------------------------------|---|--|-----------------------------------|
| Read a book that has been made into a film | Read 3 poems | Read a book from a library | Read a book from a local author or set in the local area | Read a book based on a true story |
| Read a book recommended by a friend | Read a book set in the future | Read a newspaper | Read something that has won an award | Read a detective story |
| Read a book translated from another language | Read a book set in the past | Read a play, film or T.V. script | Read a classic novel | Read something non-fiction |
| Read a short story | Read a book by an author under 30 | Read something relevant to a subject other than English | Read an autobiography or biography | Read a book from a series |

Complete one of these activities to prove that you have completed the challenge above. Make sure you have a range.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|--|
| Summarise the story in 50 words | Write a review of the book | Draw a picture of an event in the story you enjoyed | Re-write the ending of the story |
| Re-write and decorate a poem you enjoyed | Write a postcard from a character in the book to a friend | Write the first chapter of the sequel to the book | Re-write an event in the book, changing it from positive to negative or vice versa |
| Write a diary entry from the point of view of one of the characters | Re-design the book's front cover | Write a poem inspired by a book you have read | Storyboard and event in the story you found interesting |
| Write an event in the story as a play script | Create a poster on the famous person you have read about | Write a recommendation to a friend | Write a letter to the author of the book telling them what you enjoyed |