

Ebenezer Scrooge.

“I will honour Christmas in my heart. I will live in the Past, the Present, and the Future. I will not shut out the lessons that they teach.” “I am light as a feather, I am as happy as an angel, I am as merry as a schoolboy, I am giddy as a drunken man.

I was born on February 7th 1786

Hometown: 16 Bayham Street

Education: I went to boarding school

Work: I am a banker moneylender in the counting house. I use to work with my best friend Jacob Marley but he sadly died a few years ago.

About me: I used to hate Christmas this is because I would have been left at my school while all of the other children travelled home to their families over this period of time. Since then I hated Christmas and saw it as a waste of time. But then something magical happened and I had three ghosts teach me about why it is so important and how I could change things for the better and get a better life. That's when I realized that things could be different, and my life has changed, and I am loving it.

Well done, Jess! Excellent references to the text Can you add some more detail in some status updates?
