Afro-Caribbean & Allies Society

What is it?

The Afro-Caribbean and Allies Society is a school group that celebrates Afro-Caribbean culture and promotes diversity and inclusion. It gives students the opportunity to learn about different histories, traditions, achievements, music, food, and games. The society welcomes students from all backgrounds and encourages respect, equality, and cultural understanding. Through events, discussions, and activities, members build friendships and strengthen the school community. It provides a safe and supportive space where everyone can learn, share experiences, and feel a sense of belonging.

Boys Dance Club

What is it?

Find Your Rhythm, Find Your Confidence. Think dance isn't for you? Think again. Boys Dance Club is all about breaking stereotypes, building confidence, and having a great time moving to music. Whether you're a complete beginner or already have some moves, this club offers a relaxed, supportive space to try out different styles—from street and hip-hop to contemporary and performance-based routines. No pressure, no judgement—just energy, creativity, and teamwork.

Why join?

Build confidence and self-expression – Improve fitness, strength, and coordination – Learn new moves and choreography – Work as a team and perform if you want to – Challenge yourself and try something new Dance is for everyone. Step out of your comfort zone, bring your mates, and discover what you're capable of.

Duke of Edinburgh

What is it?

The Duke of Edinburgh's Award is a nationally recognised programme designed to increase confidence, encourage participation in outdoor activities and provide skills for life. Working towards this award will help to increase self-confidence, develop a sense of responsibility and enhance teamwork skills.

The award consists of three levels: bronze (offered at St George), silver and gold. Each level comprises four sections: Volunteering, Physical, Skills and Expedition. Training, workshops and practice walks are all part of the scheme. There are regular after-school sessions, as well as practice walks and camps on various dates throughout the school year.

Music Appreciation Club

What is it?

The Music Appreciation Club is an exciting opportunity for students to expand their understanding and enjoyment of music by exploring a variety of genres from different eras and cultures. Members will learn about influential artists, landmark albums, and key events in music history that have shaped the development of modern music. Through listening activities, students will experience representative songs from a range of genres and discuss the musical features, themes, and cultural influences that define each style. Sessions will encourage critical listening, thoughtful discussion, and an appreciation for the diversity of musical expression.

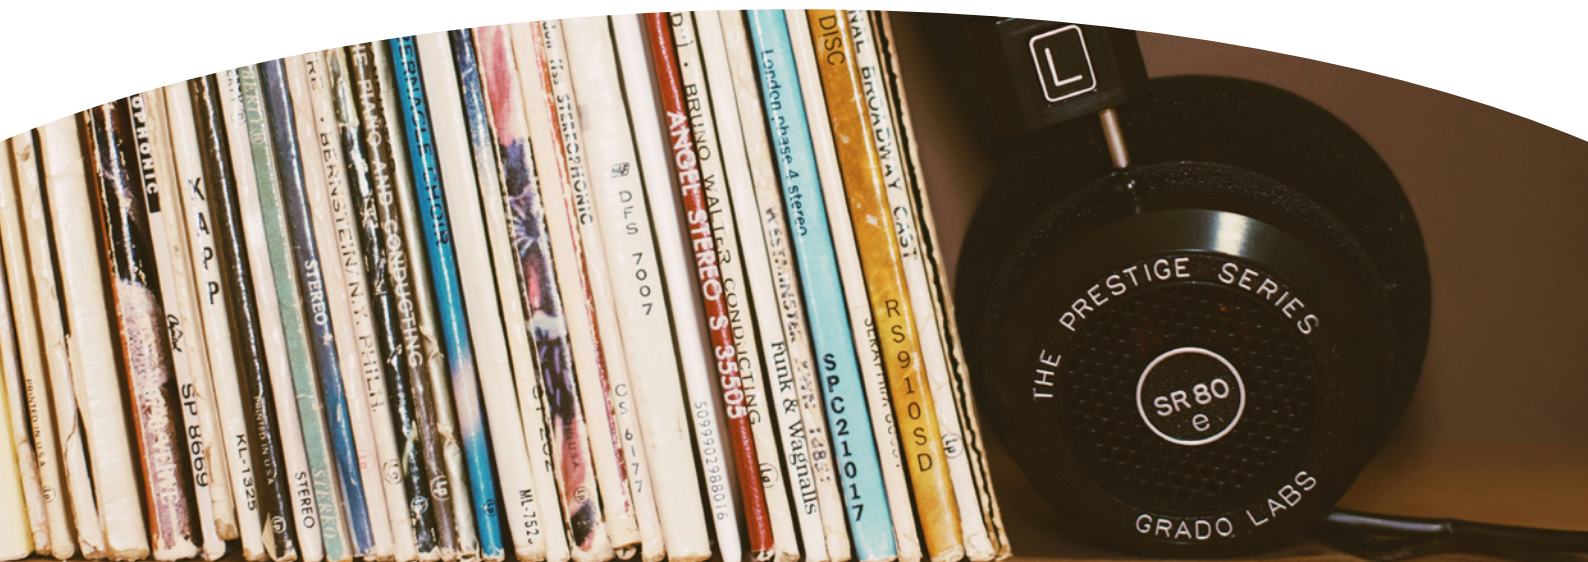

Students are invited to bring their own interests and suggestions for genres, artists, or topics they would like to explore, helping to shape the direction of the club and foster a shared love of music. Whether you are a dedicated music enthusiast or simply curious to discover something new, the Music Appreciation Club offers a welcoming environment to learn, discuss, and celebrate the world of music.

Philosophy

What is it?

Do the 'BIG questions' about life and our place in the world get you thinking? What questions do YOU want to ask? This club will be a place for you to share your ideas. Prepare to be challenged as we grapple with the questions human beings have asked for centuries – will we find the answers? Come along and find out!

Examples of questions we might discuss:

Is it ever OK to lie?

What makes you, you?

Is evil real?

Can good people do bad things?

Should animals have human rights?
